NOW SELLING

Oak Meadows Estates offers homeowners the kind of easy living that comes with rolling farmland and wide-open country skies, right in southern York County's Stewartstown, South Central Pennsylvania, within the South Eastern School District. This new construction single-family community keeps you close to local farm markets, orchards, and historic downtown charm, with York's Appell Center, Rocky Ridge County Park, and local wineries just a short drive away, and Baltimore within about an hour. Berks Homes is building this new single-family community as Coming Soon, with floor plan and homesite details still to be announced, so now's the time to join the VIP list. Reach out to a New Homes Sales Consultant for updates on homesite availability in this quiet, small-town setting.
